TERMS AND CONDITIONS

As part of your child's involvement in a Stage Right Conservatory Theatre production, some rules and regulations will need to be followed:

- No food or drinks are allowed in the theatre, except water. This is the policy of Nick Rodriguez Community Center.
- Children will not be allowed to loiter outside the theater.
- All comments and or concerns regarding this production will be directed to the theater company liaison, Kami Stiles. This is a mandatory rule for all participants.
- Harassment in ANY form (including email, texting and phone calls) will NOT be tolerated. Any member of the theater group involved in a harassment incident will be expelled from the theater group.
- If chosen for this production it is mandatory to attend all assigned rehearsals and performances.
- All costumes must be approved prior to tech week by the Director and Production Assistant.
- If not cast in a speaking part, would you be willing to play a non speaking role? Yes or No
- Would you be willing to play a role of the opposite sex? Yes or No
- If not cast would you be willing to work as back stage technical crew under supervision of the technical director?
Yes or No

We ask that parents help or volunteer if they can. Many of the ways you can help are:

- Concessions – Working the snack bar or donating snacks.
- Costume construction
- Set design and construction
